

GENDER EQUALITY 25 YEARS OF PROGRESS

POLITICAL PARTICIPATION AND LEADERSHIP

When more women and people from gender diverse communities take on leadership roles in politics and civic life, we create healthier and more inclusive communities that better reflect our diversity as Canadians.

1995

Canada adopts the Beijing Declaration and the Platform for Action.

1997

One in five (1/5) people elected to Parliament are women.

2015

Canada has its first ever gender-balanced Cabinet in history.

2019

A record number of women run for Parliament, representing 42% of candidates.

2020

One in three (1/3) people elected to Parliament are women.

#BecauseOfYou

